

soul sisters

small group covenant

1. We begin and end on time. (Try to arrive at 11:15 for 11:30)

We will begin at 11:30 sharp and finish at 12:30.

Everyone is welcome to stay and chat long after the lesson ends!

2. We come as we are... and hopefully prepared! Life happens!

We will have questions to ponder and answer week to week. We will all benefit if we come prepared to discuss the lesson... just like reading a book before book group! Your knowledge and faith will continue to grow, like a mustard seed, as you read the Bible each day. At the end of the week, you will be amazed at what you have retained. However, we all have weeks where we just can't find the time to fit the lesson in. Come anyway!

3. Everything personal shared is confidential. It stays here.

This is extremely important as we begin to open up and share our feelings, thoughts and confidential prayer requests. What is said in our group remains in the group, even when we see another soul sister in town. Just use your discretion. When this happens, trust is established.

4. We promise not to try and "fix" anyone or their situation.

As we care for one another, we will strive to be sensitive to each other's needs. We all want to help and solve not only our problems but those of our neighbor's! However, the art of active listening is a powerful tool which will benefit everyone.

5. We respect all denominations.

We come from various denominations within our Christian faith. Our goal is to embrace each other and respect each other's denomination, traditions and different styles of worship. Even though we may pray or worship in different ways, we are united with Christ at the Center. How lucky are we to learn from one another, share, and respect each other. Our goal is to build up the Church all with Christ at the center.
